4 WALKS WITH HANDS-ON ACTIVITIES

TO DISCOVER BIODIVERSITY

For seniors (but not only...)

On Saturdays (9.30-12.00) from 1 April to 10 June 2023

Within its outreach program on biodiversity, "How much is a petal worth?", the cooperative Curiosi di Natura is organizing 4 slow-paced walks to learn about the features and value of biodiversity of our natural environment.

Length: 2h 30min. The meeting points can be reached by public transport from Trieste. Walks also suitable for seniors, to enjoy moments of socialisation, culture and physical well-being.

- 1 April, Borgo Grotta Gigante observations on plant biodiversity in meadows and woods. To understand how the vegetation changes with changes in soil, light and other ecological factors.

Meeting venue: 9.10, parking area close to Ervatti sports ground, Provincial road n. 29A to Borgo Grotta Gigante. Bus 42 from Trieste.

- 15 April Basovizza (Igouza wood and Ressel trail) to identify the most common tree species of the Carso. With "Dryades", the interactive guides of the University of Trieste.

Meeting venue: 9.10, start of the Ressel trail, Basovizza. Bus 51.

- 6 May, Trebiciano observation of several types of flowers. To discover how plant species send out visual and olfactory messages to attract their insect pollinators.

Meeting venue: 9.10, square in Trebiciano (Sant'Andrea Church). Bus 51.

- 10 June, Parco di San Giovanni in Trieste, amid rose bushes and majestic trees: learn all about bees and honey with Livio Dorigo, beekeeper and long-time president of the Beekeepers' Consortium of Trieste.

Meeting venue: 9.10, upper entrance to the Park (via Valerio, Bus 17 terminus).

Price: € 5,00; free under 6 years. Booking is required.

Info & booking: curiosidinatura@gmail.com - cell. 340.5569374.

With the contribution of: Regione Autonoma Friuli Venezia Giulia
